DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-27, drawn to an apparatus.

Group II, claim(s) 28-29, drawn to a method.

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the special technical feature of the radio frequency generator with continuous or pulsed power supply characterized by the fact that said antenna comprises two conductive loop elements spaced along a common longitudinal axis and at least one axial conductive segment electrically interconnecting said conductive loop elements, each of said conductive loop elements and/or said axial conductive segment including at least one capacitive element is known, as evidenced by for example, von Campe et al., US Patent 4,915,978, Chen et al., US patent 6,164,241, US Patent 5,146,137, Bennett, US Patent 6,495,963, and Rudder et al., US Patent 5,643,639. Furthermore, the special technical feature of the RF excitation is simultaneously applied on one or a plurality ports of the antenna where the difference between the two ports was a 90° degrees phase shift on the input excitation, as evidenced by for example, Gesche et al., US Patent 5,146,137. Therefore, such technical features do not provide a contribution over the prior art.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
